

Uwe Weissflog

Uwe Weissflog is the founder of Pathway Guidance – Europe. Since 2000 he has worked across Europe in individual consulting and coaching relationships, enabling clients in private and public knowledge domains (industry, universities, and associations) to integrate their business, technology and human needs based on a holistic perspective as the basis for appropriate decisions and actions. Before Uwe started his 2nd career as an independent consultant in 2000, he worked 30 years in professional and executive positions in the USA, Europe and Asia. These experiences provide the base for his consulting approach in leadership development, team work and large group facilitation (World Café, Open Space, and Future Search Conferences).

In addition he is co-organizer and facilitator of PDT Europe, the leading independent European conference of product lifecycle issues, and, since 2004 organizes the Pathway Guidance - Europe annual Retreat. He has written 2 books on innovation and knowledge management.

He is a certified coach and TeamSpirit™ facilitator and a member of the Society for Organisational Learning (SoL), the Baltic Sea Forum (BSF), the Baltic Management Development Association (BMDA) and the Society of Cognitive Science.
