

Iztok Seljak

Iztok Seljak started his career at Rotomatika, Hidria's daughter company, in 1989. During the years at Rotomatika, he has been between 1989 and 2002 responsible for purchasing, sales & marketing and finally, since 1996, spent six years as a President of Executive Committee of Rotomatika. He has been corporate Vice President of Hidria for Industrial sales & marketing since 2002. In 2004, he additionally took over the responsibility for Hidria Automotive, one of the core two divisions in Hidria.

Since January, 2008, he acts as a President of Management Board of Hidria.

He is Vice President of the Board of Slovenian Association Manager, a Member of Presidency of Slovenian Chamber of Commerce, Vice President of Samit 100 Business Leaders South Eastern Europe and Vice President of Feniks, International Construction Consortium.

He graduated with BSc in Economics, University of Ljubljana, followed by an MBA of IEDC, Bled School of Management and MSc at IEDC, where he is currently finalizing his PhD.

He has been in 2002 awarded with the title of the Young Manager of the Year in Slovenia by Association Manager and in 2012 with the title Best Manager of South-East and Central Europe by an international jury in Sarajevo.