

Thierry Grange

Prof. Thierry Grange holds degrees in mechanical engineering (Technische Universität München), economics, finance, management sciences (Grenoble University). He completed the ITP program at HEC-HARVARD/Boston. Before, he held international project management positions in the overseas construction industry. He then founded motorcycle manufacturer BFG SA (MBK). In 1984, he took a position at a newly business school -Grenoble Ecole de Management- where he served as a member of the school's faculty, academic dean, dean, director. He is currently President of the school's Strategic Board.

He has published more than 60 articles, books or book chapters in the field of Management & Technology. He has been Member of the EFMD/EPAS Accreditation Board. He has been elected twice at AACSB Board of Directors and served on the main AACSB Committees. He is presently Special Advisor to the President of AACSB for Europe and Member of the French Business Education Degrees Accreditation Board.