

Preliminary Program of the 8th Annual IMTA Alumni Meeting

Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration (RANEPA)

Friday, 24th of May, Moscow, RANEPA

9.30-10.00 Registration; coffee and get together time

10.00-11.30 Leading Change in Management Schools: The transformation of BSL (Lausanne) and its lessons, by JB Kassarjian, Professor of Leadership at Babson College, USA, Professor Emeritus, IMD-Lausanne, Switzerland (Harvard Business School-supported development of business education institutions in Iran, the Philippines and Lebanon)

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45-13.15 Accreditation as a Change Management Tool: experience of IQA and CEEMAN, by Jim Ellert, IMTA Academic Director and CEEMAN International Quality Accreditation – IQA Director, Prof. Emeritus and former Dean of Faculty IMD-Lausanne, Switzerland, and Visiting Professor IEDC-Bled School of Management, Slovenia

13.15-14.30 Lunch time

14.30-16.00 IMTA alumni and special guests' brief reports on their schools' transformation and/or accreditation experiences:

- IBS Master Program accreditation (RANEPA): getting EPAS twice
- Financial Department Master Program accreditation (RANEPA): getting IQA
- Department of Management and Commerce (MGIMO): choosing the right accreditation
- 3-6 reports expected – participants' proposals are welcome

16.00-16.15 Coffee break

16.15.-18.00 Round-table: faculty development and institutional development: the role of IMTA
Helping schools in their transformation efforts, and to evaluate the pros and cons of accreditations.

Lead and moderated by Milenko Gudić, IMTA Managing Director, CEEMAN, Slovenia

19.30 Gala Dinner

Saturday, 25th of May, Moscow

10.00-11.30 Three Perspectives on the future of business education:

- Will business trainings teach integrity as business schools used to do? An employer's perspective, by Marat Atnashev, Vice-President for Large Projects, EVRAZ Holding
- Upcoming trends in business education and changes in IMTA's role in faculty development, by Milenko Gusic, IMTA Managing Director, CEEMAN, Slovenia
- Reviewing RABE's Foresight on Business Education 2012: what can we see better now?, Speaker TBC

11.30-13.30 Brainstorming on the near future of business education: group discussions and mini-presentations of the top trends and challenges in business education lead by teachers, students and top-managers.

13.30-14.30 Lunch time

14.30-17.00: Top-five places to visit in Moscow in a good company

Contact: Timur Atnashev, Senior Lecturer and Head of Master Program in Change Management, International Business School IBS=-Moscow at timur.atnashev@gmail.com or mobile phone: + 7 926 213 67 07