

Jim Ellert

Jim Ellert is Emeritus Professor of Finance and Strategy, former Dean of Faculty at IMD, Lausanne, and currently Co-Director of the EMBA Program at IEDC, Bled School of Management. He has more than 45 years of experience in executive education, having taught finance, accounting, economics, and statistics at the University of Western Ontario, the University of Chicago, and Queen's University, Kingston, Canada, before joining the faculty of IMD in 1981 where he extended his teaching portfolio to the areas of strategy, leadership, and marketing. He has been involved with IEDC, Bled School of Management, since 1988.

Professor Ellert's current areas of research interest are financial management, valuation of companies, implementing value-based management strategies, financial restructuring, mergers and acquisitions, and international capital market developments. He is the author of many books, articles, presentations, and award-winning case studies on these subjects.

His viewpoints and activities have been profiled in Fortune Magazine, the Wall Street Journal, Financial Times of London, Handelsblatt, International Business, Le Monde, L'Expansion, New China Post, the Straights Times, Posnovnia denevike, Koha ditore, Lider, and other managerially oriented publications

Professor Ellert has been active as a consultant, advisor, and educator to more than 60 companies and public institutions in more than 30 countries within North and South America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Middle East, India, Sub-Saharan Africa, the Far East, and Australia. He has also served on the boards of several organizations in Europe, North America, and Asia.

Professor Ellert is Canadian. He graduated in political science and economics from the University of Toronto, and gained his M.A. in economics at the University of Western Ontario and a Ph.D. in finance and economics from the University of Chicago.