

Dmitriy Chernenko

Dmitriy Chernenko is a general director (CEO) of STiM group of companies, which mainly focuses on the road marking machinery and paint production.

Born in Beltsy, Moldavian SSR, Dmitry is a graduate of Minsk Higher Engineering School of anti-aircraft missile defense forces. After graduation with honors, he served in officer positions from 1986 till USSR collapse in 1992. His business life started in medical equipment services and international transportation fields. In 1997, Dmitry graduated from the University of Warsaw, Faculty of Management and Marketing. STiM was founded in 1998, and Dmitry is a head of the company from 2000.