

Thomas Marschall

Thomas Marschall served as CEO & President of Precise Biometrics AB from 2006 to November 2013. Precise Biometrics AB is listed on the Swedish Nasdaq Small Cap list. During this period Precise Biometrics won the global market leader space in fingerprint algorithms for SmartPhones and Smart ID Cards.

Before Precise Biometrics Thomas Marschall was the CEO of the Venture backed Content Management software company Synkron for 5 years. He joined Synkron after 12 years in the Danish Fortune Top 100 Shipping and Oil Company Maersk, where he was responsible for the start-up of horizontal drilling and environmental oilfield service entities.

In 2015 Thomas Marschall founded the TheBigDisruption, Http://www.thebigdisruption.com a company engaged in disruptive technology speaking & advisory and business angel investments.

Thomas Marschall holds a Marketing Degree from Henley and has participated in Executive programs at Stanford, NUS in Singapore and The Singularity University.

He has been a member of YPO (Young Presidents Organization) since 2008 and currently serves as Chapter Chair in the Greater Europe Chapter.

He lives with 3 kids near Copenhagen in Denmark but frequently visits the US both East and West Coast.