

Renaud Chamonal

Renaud graduated with a master degree in business and administration from Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Pau (France) and has twenty years of experience in Sales, Marketing and Management in multinational FMCG companies.

After first experiences in «Procter&Gamble» and «L’Oreal», Renaud joined Danone in January 2003. He worked in different management positions, for three Business Units of Danone (Early life nutrition, biscuits and Fresh Dairy) and in different countries like France, Bulgaria and Kazakhstan. After a previous experience of CEO in Danone Bulgaria, Renaud became in January 2014 CEO of “Danone-Berkut” managing Central Asia and Caucasus region based in Kazakhstan.

Renaud is also Conseiller du Commerce Extérieur de la France (CCEF), President of Association des Cercles Français d’Affaires au Kazakhstan (ACFAK) - the Franco-Kazakhstani Business Club and Permanent member of the Council for investment climate chaired by the Prime Minister of Kazakhstan Republic.

Renaud speaks fluently French, English and Spanish. He is married and has 2 children.