

Slađana Barjaktarović Rakočević

Slađana Barjaktarović Rakočević, PhD, is Vice-dean for International Cooperation and Relations to Companies at the Faculty of Organizational Sciences, University of Belgrade and Associate Professor at the Department of Financial Management. She is the author of several books as well as numerous scientific and research papers in the field of financial institutions, bank management, investment banking, financial markets, financial analyses etc. Slađana is one of the editors of the international monograph „Innovative Management and Firm Performance - An Interdisciplinary Approach” published by Palgrave Macmillan from the UK. Slađana was on study visits in US, University of Illinois and New York Stock Exchange - NYSE. Also, Slađana is Chartered Management Institute approved trainer, level 5/7. She is licensed stockbroker in Serbia. Slađana is Editor of the International Department in Editorial Board of the journal “Management”. She is also member of European Finance Association, Financial Management Association (FMA), CEEMAN Alumni and Serbian associations of managers - SAM. Slađana is lecturer on Executive MBA, Finance module. She works as financial consultant on numerous scientific and commercial projects, delivers training and workshops, she organized several scientific conferences and is member of Committee for publishing at the Faculty of Organizational Sciences. Also, Slađana is reviewer for evaluation of higher education institutions and study programmes in the process of accreditation and external quality assurance, Commission for Accreditation and Quality Assurance in Serbia.