

Vladimir Nanut

Prof. Vladimir Nanut is the Founder and the Dean of MIB Trieste School of Management. Since 2010 he has been the President of the Italian Association for Management Development (ASFOR), where he has also held roles as Vice-President, Deputy Director on Internationalization and President of the Accreditation Commission.

He is also Board Member of the International Management Development Association for Dynamic Societies (CEEMAN).

He has held the chair of Full Professor in Business Strategy at the University of Trieste, where he has also held role as Director of the Economics and Business Department and has been a Member of the Academic Senate. He is widely published in the areas of Corporate Management.

In addition to his academic accomplishments, Prof. Nanut has held many professional roles, such as Vice President of Regional Finance Company Friulia Spa, President of Friulia Factor, Chairman of L.A. Life (Allianz Group), among others. He has also worked as administrator and auditor of several banks and industrial/service companies as well as strategic management consultant.