

Marek Ignor

Marek Ignor is President of the Dolnośląski Fundusz Rozwoju (Lower Silesian Fund for Development). He is an experienced manager, entrepreneur, investor and adviser. Originator and initiator of entrepreneurship support programs, having a broad knowledge of the SME sector.

A graduate of the master and doctoral studies at Wrocław University of Economics in the area of finance, he authored a number of publications in the field of optimization of budgeting and reporting of institutions / enterprises in the public finance sector, and is currently working on doctoral thesis entitled "Financial Intermediation of Regional Financial Institutions in Poland".

Mr. Ignor has began his entrepreneur's career in 1993. Since 2000, he has held positions in management boards and worked as a management advisor. He cooperated or advised in the restructuring and consolidation processes of many enterprises. For many years he has been advising small and medium-sized companies.

Currently, as the President of the Dolnośląski Fundusz Rozwoju (Lower Silesian Fund for Development), he has been implementing a strategic program for Lower Silesia Region to support small and medium-sized enterprises by means of returnable financial instruments.