

Krzysztof Jajuga

Krzysztof Jajuga is a full professor at the Wrocław University of Economics, and Chairman of the Department of Financial Investments and Risk Management. He obtained his doctoral degree in Economic sciences from Oskar Lange Academy of Economics (now Wrocław University of Economics) in 1982 and became a full professor in 1992. In 2012 Prof Jajuga was honored a Doctor Honoris Causa degree by Cracow University of Economics. Also in 2012 the Warsaw University of Technology honored him with a title of Honorary Professor.

At the beginning of his scientific carrier, Prof Jajuga was awarded a Fulbright grant at Stanford University, Department of Statistics. He was visiting professor at many universities in USA, Europe (France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Great Britain and Sweden) and China. His field of scientific interest is financial markets, financial instruments, risk management and financial engineering, personal finance and statistical data analysis. He is the author of numerous international and national publications in the field of economics, finance and risk management.

He is a member of the Central Commission for Degrees and Titles and the Council of Scientific Excellence, chairman of the Statistics and Econometrics Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences and a member of the Presidium of the Committee of Economic Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences and the Committee on Financial Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences, acts as the president of CFA Society Poland, a prestigious association of specialists in investment and financial management.

Prof Jajuga is editor-in-chief of the Argumenta Oeconomica - an international, peer-reviewed semiannual journal, and chairman or member of editorial boards of several economic journals (Risk Management in Financial Institutions, among others).

In 2019, Prof Jajuga was selected among the 30 most creative persons in Wrocław, in the competition organized by the Wrocław Agglomeration Development Agency as an authority in the field of finance, statistics, econometrics and risk management. Prof. Jajuga has also found his prominent place among people who have particular significance for the development of the capital market in the last 25 years in Poland. The list was prepared by PARKIET – the journal specializing in Polish and global capital market.