

Olga Veligurska

Olga Veligurska is Director of CEEMAN.

Originally from Latvia, Olga has been with CEEMAN since 2004, being closely engaged in all of its activities and projects, including IMTA – International Management Teachers Academy, international conferences and professional development events, IQA – International Quality Accreditation, member and alumni relations, research publications and overall administration. From 2009-2017 she also served as Vice President of Challenge:Future global youth think tank and competition on innovation and sustainability (www.challengefuture.org), and is currently a Steering Committee member of the UN PRME (Principles for Responsible Management Education) Chapter for Central and Eastern Europe.

Olga holds BSc from Stockholm School of Economics in Riga, Latvia and an MBA from IEDC-Bled School of Management in Slovenia.