

Yerkin Tatishev

Yerkin Tatishev is the Founder and Chairman of Kusto Group. The strategic visionary behind the Group, Yerkin launched Kusto in the 1990s with the aim of transforming failing and mismanaged assets in the former Soviet Union. Under his leadership, Kusto has grown to become a multinational investment company with operations spanning three continents and industries ranging from construction and energy, to agriculture and real estate. Since 2014, Kusto Group has been headquartered in Singapore.

A patron of the arts, Yerkin is the co-founder of the Tsinandali Festival of Classical Music and a driving force behind the Pan Caucasian Youth Orchestra. Yerkin is also a Chairman of AlmaU Board of Trustees, founder of High Tech Academy and a great supporter of education.