

What's hot in entrepreneurship?

A look at the trends in entrepreneurship research and practice

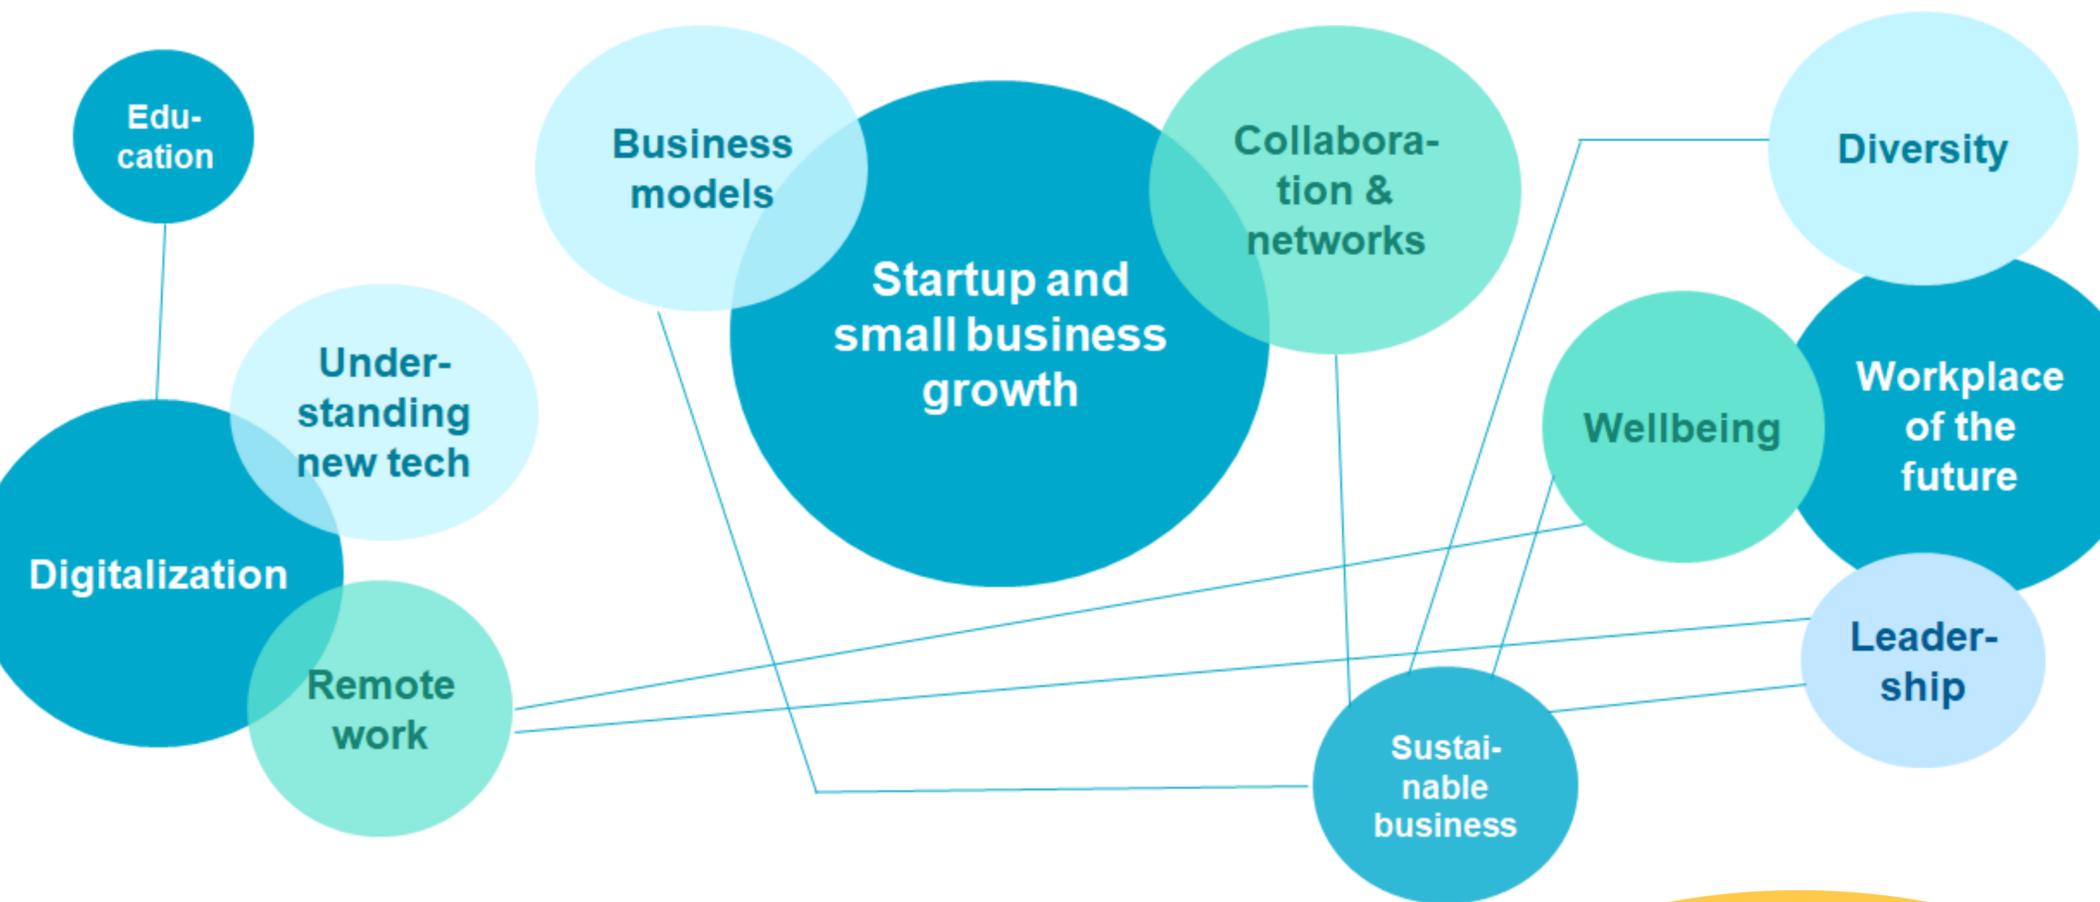

Based on the 2020 review of some highly respected journals serving as a bridge of communication between academia and management practice.

CROSSING BOUNDARIES, MOVING TOWARDS NEW PERSPECTIVES THROUGH INTERDISCIPLINARITY

Diversity in why people establish ventures, what types of ventures, where do they do it, how and whom with.

Lack of clearly defined boundaries: no dominant theories or paradigms, the most successful ideas flourish.

For self-reflection in research & teaching

How does your work correlate with what's bubbling up?
 ...or with one of the interdisciplinary links?
 ...or are you looking into expanding the interconnections?

IN THE ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT OF CO-CREATION I INVITE YOU TO CO-RESEARCH & CO-DEVELOP THE MOST SUCCESSFUL IDEAS
