

Witold Bielecki

Witold Bielecki, PhD, is Professor of Management and Rector of Kozminski University, as well as Head of Department of Quantitative Methods and Applications of Computers.

He has taught courses on Decision Support Systems, Business Application of Computers, Management Information Systems, Operations Research, and Simulation Management Games. As a visiting professor, he delivered lectures in many universities in USA, UK, Ukraine and Belorussia.

He published textbooks and scientific articles on management in Polish and foreign scholarly journals. Is co-author of two computer-controlled management games, and co-author and supervisor of a multimedia package for training managers.

He was consulting projects director in the field of design and implementation of Decision Support Systems for Polish firms and companies. Member of a few supervisory boards, including PZU S.A. - Polish Insurance Company, PAiZ Polish Agency for Foreign Investment, Bank BGZ S.A..

Member of the Board of International Simulation and Gaming Association (ISAGA), Association for Business Simulation & Experimental Learning (ABSEL).

Member of the Boards of EFMD - The Management Development Network and CEEMAN – International Association for Management Development in Dynamic Societies.