

Christodoulos Papaphotis

Christodoulos Papaphotis is the Education Director in Microsoft covering Central and Eastern Europe, covering 33 countries including Russia, Hungary, Poland, Czech Republic going eastward to Kazakhstan and Mongolia and from the Baltics down to Greece and Malta. His 18 years of experience includes several sales and marketing roles, including running OEM Named Channel Partners for Microsoft across CEE previously as well as working for SAP as country manager for Cyprus. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Electrical and Computer Engineering and an MBA from Old Dominion University, USA, and is an accredited Executive Coach and a founding member of the Greek chapter of the European Mentoring & Coaching Council EMCC.