

CEEMAN Responsible Management Educator of the Year 2021

Jaliyyah Bello

Faculty of Business and Law, Coventry University, UK

Jaliyyah Bello holds a PhD in Finance from Coventry University (UK). She is an Assistant Professor in Finance in the School of Economics, Finance and Accounting at Coventry University, where she was the pioneer SDGs Lead. Within her role as an Assistant Professor, she serves as the Director of International Partnerships and a Sustainability Champion for the faculty of Business and Law. She co-founded the Coventry University Education for Sustainable Development Working Group which actively engage in supporting staff to embed sustainability into their teaching.

She is member of the University's Ethical Investment Working Group contributing to the delivery of the University's Ethical Investment Policy as well as encouraging students to be part of the Working Group and influence University policy. Jaliyyah is currently a member of the United Nations PRME Climate Change and Environment Working Group, and a member of the Association of Commonwealth Universities Higher Education and SDGs Network. Her principal research and teaching area include, behavioural finance, investment analysis, financial contagion, and sustainable development.

