

Ádám Török

Ádám Török is Secretary-General of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Professor of Economics at University of Pannonia (Veszprém) and Budapest University of Technology and Economics, and also a recurrent Visiting Professor at the CEU Economics Department, Budapest.

He holds MA in International Trade and International Economics from Karl Marx University of Economics (Budapest, 1976); Diplôme d'Études Supérieures Européennes, University of Nancy II, France (Centre Européen Universitaire, 1981); Candidate of Economics (PhD) in International Economics, Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1986); University habilitation at the Janus Pannonius University, Pécs (1996).

Prof. Török has been a Member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences since 2001, its Board Member since 2008, and was Head of the Section Economic and Legal Sciences between 2004 and 2011. Since 1999, he has been Vice-President of the Hungarian Economic Association and was Member of the Fiscal Council of Hungary in 2009-2010. From 2007 to 2014 he led the MTA-PE Networked Research Group on Regional Innovation and Development Studies, and has been Chair of the Editorial Board of Acta Oeconomica since 2012 (Editor-in-Chief between 2000 and 2011).

He has published more than 140 studies on Stabilisation Policies, Hungarian and International Trade, Industrial Policy, Innovation, Research and Development, Fiscal Policy and Competition Policy (36 written in English, German, Spanish or French), including 31 book chapters, as well as six books published in Hungarian and four (two with co-authors) in English.