

Kaja Prystupa-Rządca

Kaja Prystupa-Rządca specializes in the field of management and transformation in a virtual environment and innovation strategies. She supports people in the development of virtual communication processes and inspires to changes at the organizational level. She teaches at post-graduate studies, Executive MBA at the Koźmiński Executive Business School and is the virtual team facilitator at Dual Academy. Kaja is the author of over 30 case studies presenting dynamically developing Polish companies as part of the pioneer project of development of professional database of case studies. She was the initiator of the first Polish course devoted to virtual teams at Koźmiński University. Kaja is CEEMAN IMTA alumna (2012) and a member of international research teams cooperating with universities from the United States, Finland and Switzerland, as well as of Professional Speakers Association, British Academy of Management and the European Academy of Management.